

LMI Monthly News Feed

The Lower Mekong Initiative (LMI) Monthly News Feed highlights the most popular LMI Tweets and Facebook Posts. Get all of the LMI updates by connecting with the LMI Coordination Hub on Twitter and Facebook. Please also visit the LMI website at www.lowermekong.org.

Most Popular LMI Tweets and Posts - November 2013

- "What we are trying to accomplish in LMI is a partnership" said Ambassador Carden at 5th LMI Regional Working Group Meeting. Click the link to find out more: <http://bit.ly/1jAg4iX>
- Integrating gender equality in climate change planning in Vietnam. <http://bit.ly/190swql>
- Geospatial analysts and foresters learn an effective approach to measure greenhouse gas emissions in Vietnam. <http://bit.ly/17235X1>
- Lower Mekong Officials meet to support ASEAN integration and regional cooperation: <http://bit.ly/18gcHbS>
- USAID's CAP-Malaria project provides face-to-face malaria education to high-risk people on the Thailand-Cambodia border. <http://bit.ly/17kJQCV>
- Thai students develop innovative software products to address key development challenges in Asia. <http://bit.ly/17fv7w3>

Connect with the Hub!

Follow LMI on

f Facebook | t Twitter
www.lowermekong.org

The LMI Monthly News Feed is brought to you by the LMI Coordination Hub based in Bangkok, Thailand. The purpose of the Hub is to strengthen information sharing, outreach, and stakeholder cooperation in the Lower Mekong sub-region.

To unsubscribe, please click here.

For questions, please email the Hub at: lmihub@lowermekong.org